Vision Lamka in collaboration with Rayburn College organized Half-Day Symposium on “Promoting Healthy and Ethical Unique Urban Culture” at the College Campus on 23th March, 2021 with the objective to promote public consciousness for healthy, systematic and sustainable urban settlement through public talks, debates, seminars, competition and other means of public communication.

F.No. 01/Prog./2021 (VL)

To,
The Principal
Rayburn College,
New Lamka, Manipur

Subject: Half-day symposium 'to promote and encourage healthy and ethical unique urban culture' for college students of Lamka (Churachandpur) - regarding

Dear Sir,

Warm greetings to you on behalf of Vision Lamka!

You may like to recollect the telephonic conversation you had with the Chairman of Vision Lamka regarding holding of symposium for the young adults/ college students.

As he must have mentioned, we are a group of persons who sincerely wish to see the city of Lamka to become the best place in the world. This may sound impractical and even laughable for some people. Yes! It is indeed our intention to provoke you to believe that our dream may become a reality one day: say after a hundred or 500 years from today. Our aim is not of immediate tomorrow but a journey of visions, values and dreams for all generations to come.

Our aim is to lay the foundation the next generation could continue to build upon with the same vision of making the city the best. It's a journey of hope and adventure from generation to generation.

One of the enumerated objectives of Vision Lamka as incorporated in the MOA is to 'to promote and encourage healthy and ethical unique urban culture' (Copy enclosed). On this particular objective we are of the view that we must target the young adults so that they may involve and promote the healthy and ethical culture for the future generations. We are, therefore, wondering whether we in collaboration could organise say half day Symposium for college students in the near future. Vision Lamka would be able to bear some misc. expenses like the cost of banner, referment, etc.

We shall be grateful if could kindly consider it and respond to this proposal.

Sincerely,

Sham Lalok
Secretary
Vision Lamka
